

The Swedish Institution of Rubber Technology Winter Conference 2021 December 1st in Malmö

Invitation

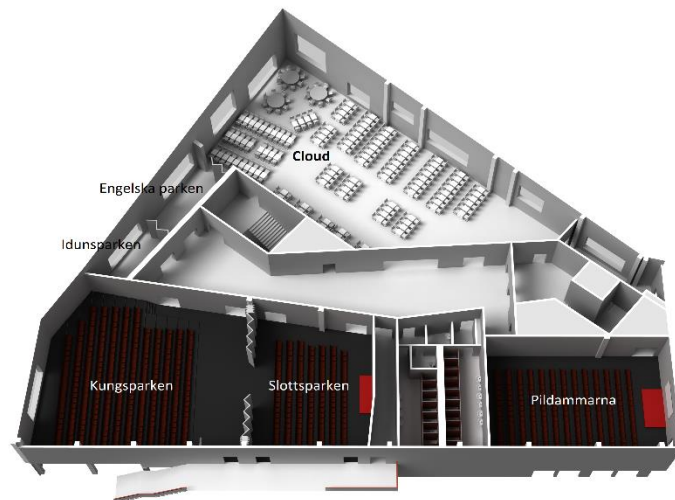

The Swedish Institution of Rubber Technology is inviting you to its winter conference the 1st of December. The conference will be held at Malmömässan in Malmö in conjunction with fair Plastteknik Nordic.

Theme

The theme of this conference will be rather broad as normally with the winter (autumn) conference. There will be a variety from characteristics of different peroxides to the reason for standardisation. We will also have a strong focus on sustainability EV demands on our products.

Conference dinner on December 1st

SGF is inviting you to conference dinner on Wednesday the 1st at restaurant Saltimporten, located close to the hotel where we (most of us) will stay. There will also be some entertainment during the evening.

Hotel

We have pre-booked Story Hotel Studio Malmö for participants in the conference. With a unique location that combines a city centre setting with water views, it invites you to get comfortable in a beautiful, yet relaxed setting. The sweeping views of the city skyline and the ocean.

Please use this link when making the reservation. You need to pick the correct dates and enter group code: G-WA12
